

For believers or seekers interested in religion, faith or spirituality!

The Ottawa School of Theology & Spirituality (OSTS) is a lay- and volunteer-run school committed to adult theological and spiritual education. We are into our second half-century of offering informative courses of interest to everyone.

The fall 2017 and winter 2018 courses include many informative, exciting and thought-provoking subjects:

- THEOLOGY: Ways to Think about God; Temptation
- SPIRITUALITY: Intergenerational and Young Adult Spirituality; Process Theology; Carmelite Mystics and Prophets
- BIBLICAL ROOTS: Biblical Personalities; The Nativity; Book of Acts
- CURRENT ISSUES: Art and Religion; Faith and Women Writers; Jesus, Values and Money

When: Mondays: September 18 – November 27, 2017
& January 8 – March 19, 2018
First class starts at 7:30 p.m.; second class at 8:40 p.m.

Where: Dominican University College, 96 Empress Avenue
(north off Somerset Street and west of Bronson Avenue)
Wheelchair accessible. Free parking in lot and on streets.

Cost: $75 per term for 2 courses; $140 for both terms

Registration: Online at <http://www.osts.ca/registration.htm>
or prior to the first class at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 19

More info: Visit our website at www.osts.ca
Call Peter Holt: (613) 619-5143
or Kathy Shultz: (613) 680-4486
Email: president@osts.ca