

For believers or seekers interested in religion, faith or spirituality!

The Ottawa School of Theology & Spirituality (OSTS) is a volunteer-run school committed to adult theological and spiritual education. We are well into our second half-century of offering informative courses of interest to everyone.

The Fall 2024 and Winter 2025 courses include many informative, exciting and thought-provoking subjects:

- THEOLOGY: Intro to the Baha'i Faith; Why Advent?; The Reformation;
- SPIRITUALITY: From the Heart: Indigenous Spiritualities, Cultures and Identities; Cultural Hermeneutics with Reformation Artists;
- BIBLICAL ROOTS: Intro to the Gospel of John;
- CURRENT ISSUES: "Just Wars": A Brief History of a Lure and a Trap; Journey to Forgiveness; Preference and Power in Congregational Song; 2SLGBTQQIA+ - Journey to Full Inclusion; Christian Responses to Earth's Fragility; Cultural Appropriation and Sacred Song

Please note: each course is delivered either entirely in-person or purely online.

When: Mon: Sept 23 - Dec 2, 2024; Jan 6 - Mar 17, 2025
Classes run from 7:30-9:30 p.m. with a 20 min break

Where: In Person courses: All Saints' Anglican / First United, 347 Richmond Rd, Ottawa
Online courses: using the Zoom app

Same Great cost: $75 / term for 2 courses; $140 for both terms

Registration: Online at <http://www.osts.ca/registration.htm>
or prior to the first class at 7:00pm on Mon, Sept. 23

More info: Visit www.osts.ca or email secretary@osts.ca