

For believers or seekers interested in religion, faith or spirituality!

The Ottawa School of Theology & Spirituality (OSTS) is a lay- and volunteer-run school committed to adult theological and spiritual education. We are into our second half-century of offering informative courses of interest to everyone.

The Fall 2018 and Winter 2019 courses include many informative, exciting and thought-provoking subjects:

- THEOLOGY: World Christianity; Coptic Orthodox Christianity; Revelation across Religions
- SPIRITUALITY: A Liberating Word from the Mountain Top: 10 Commandments and the Beatitudes; New Ways of Ministry with SBNR Young Adults
- BIBLICAL ROOTS: Understanding the Stories in Genesis; "You've Got Mail": A study in Revelation
- CURRENT ISSUES: Journeys to Justice: Reflections on Canadian Christian Activism; "Crisis? What Crisis?"; Learning A New Way to Pray: Tracking the Trajectory of (the) Reformation in the Church
- FAITH & THE ARTS: An Introduction to the Evolution of Christian Church Architecture; Studio Course in Christian Art

When: Mondays: Sept 17 – Nov 26, 2018 and Jan 7 – Mar 18, 2019
First class starts at 7:30 p.m.; second class at 8:40 p.m.

Where: Dominican University College, 96 Empress Avenue
Wheelchair accessible. Ample parking on-site and free on-street.

Cost: $75 per term for 2 courses; $140 for both terms

Registration: Online at <http://www.osts.ca/registration.htm>
or prior to the first class at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 17

More info: Visit our website at www.osts.ca
Call Peter Holt: (613) 619-5143 or or Ann Babin: (613) 830-8826
Email: osts.president@gmail.com