

Course E Sacramental Voices: Spiritual Themes in Poetry and Song

[In person]

Lecturer Reverend Allan Budzin

Description

This course explores various themes in spirituality as displayed in a selection of poetry, song, and film. Emphasis will be given to the theological significance on Incarnation and its creative expression in the religious imagination of several poets.

Course notes and other materials will be distributed by Rev. Budzin directly to the course participants. More information will be available on the first night of the course.
