

OSTS Lecture, Winter 2025, 2nd Term
February 10th to March 17th

Course J    The Reformation: Is it Relevant Today? (Zoom Class)

Lecturer    Professor Jarrett Carty

Descriptor

Is the Reformation relevant to contemporary Christians? How did it form modern Christian ethics and worship practices? This course will help answer these questions with an overview of Reformation history, how it has been understood since the 16th century, its effects upon society and politics, and how deeply influential it continues to be. (53 words)

Outline

Week 1:    The medieval pretext to the Reformation

Week 2:    The early Reformation: Luther and German Reform

Week 3:    The European Reformation: Reformed and Radicals

Week 4:    Catholic Reform; Political Upheavals

Week 5:    Interpreting the Reformation

Bio

Jarrett A. Carty is Professor and Principal of the Liberal Arts College, Concordia University, where he has taught for 17 years. He is also an ordained Anglican deacon and chaplain to the three-day shelters run by the Diocese of Ottawa.